My family and friends have enjoyed these fun quiz questions over the years, writes quiz compiler Andrew Townsend, who has also been entertaining listeners to BBC local radio with his quiz questions . Rather than just being a test of memory or knowledge (or of how good you are at guessing!), the idea behind the quizzes is to spark some conversation on the wide range of topics covered.

Quite often a question would bring to mind such anecdotes and memories that it seemed a shame to interrupt and ask the next one.

Not all the questions will promote fulsome conversation but, hopefully, you will enjoy where the quizzes take you.

The questions can be asked remotely over the internet, using one of the video conferencing programmes available, or in a room of people. One person should act as the quizmaster with everyone else answering the questions and everybody sharing any thoughts on the subjects raised.

There are 20 four-question quizzes with multiple choice answers in this e-book.

I hope you have fun!
