Important Vastu Guidelines for Designing a 3BHK House

1. Entrance:

The entrance of your house should ideally be in the north, northeast, or east direction to invite positive energy. Avoid entrances in the south, southwest, or west directions, as they can hinder prosperity and cause negative effects.

2. Living Room:

The living room is the heart of your home, and it should be located in the northeast or north direction. Ensure the furniture arrangement allows for free movement and promotes positive interactions among family members and guests.

3. Bedrooms:

For the master bedroom, the southwest direction is ideal, as it promotes peace, stability, and a harmonious relationship. Children's bedrooms are best placed in the west or east direction, fostering creativity and a conducive learning environment.

4. Kitchen:

The kitchen is crucial for the overall well-being of the family. It should be situated in the southeast corner and the cook should face east while preparing meals. This placement ensures good health, prosperity, and nourishment for the residents.

5. Bathrooms and Toilets:

Bathrooms and toilets should be constructed in the northwest or southeast corner of the house. Ensure these areas are well-ventilated and maintain proper hygiene to prevent any negative energy accumulation.

Benefits of Following Vastu Shastra

By adhering to Vastu Shastra principles while designing your 3BHK House, you can experience a range of benefits:

- Improved physical and mental well-being
- Enhanced harmony and positivity in relationships

- Increased financial stability and prosperity
- Positive energy flow throughout the house
- Reduced chances of accidents and mishaps
