Example Debate: Mike Trout vs. Mookie Betts

As arguably the two best fantasy baseball players, the comparison between Mike Trout and Mookie Betts is a heated debate. Welsh provides a comprehensive analysis of their statistics, scoring potential, and overall value to fantasy teams, offering clarity to managers torn between these two stellar outfielders.

2. Sleeper Picks: Under-the-Radar Players That Can Make an Impact

In this section, Welsh reveals lesser-known players who have the potential to outperform their draft positions. These sleeper picks can often be the difference-makers in fantasy leagues, providing managers with unexpected value.

Example Sleeper Pick: Franmil Reyes

While not a household name yet, Chris Welsh recognizes the potential of Franmil Reyes. Welsh breaks down Reyes' power-hitting ability and expected playing time, making a strong case for why he should be on fantasy managers' radars.

3. Risky Players: High Reward or Potential Bust?

Every fantasy baseball draft involves taking risks, but knowing when to take them is crucial. In this section, Welsh examines players who offer high upside but come with substantial risk, analyzing the factors that could make or break their fantasy seasons.

Example Risky Player: Shohei Ohtani

Shohei Ohtani's unique abilities as both a hitter and a pitcher make him a fascinating case study. Welsh discusses the potential rewards of drafting Ohtani, as well as the injury concerns and workload management that can affect his fantasy production.

4. Breakout Candidates: Players Ready to Take the Next Step

Identifying breakout candidates is an essential aspect of fantasy baseball. In this section, Welsh identifies players who have the potential to significantly improve their performances and become fantasy superstars in the 2019 season.

Example Breakout Candidate: Luis Castillo

Welsh explains why Luis Castillo has the stuff to dominate in 2019. He analyzes Castillo's pitch arsenal, previous performance, and potential for growth, suggesting that fantasy managers should keep a close eye on the talented pitcher during their drafts.

5. Positional Debates: Who Is the Best at Each Position?

In this section, Welsh breaks down the best players at each position in fantasy baseball, allowing managers to compare and evaluate their options. From catchers to outfielders, Welsh provides insights on which players can offer the most consistent and highest fantasy production.

Example Positional Debate: Nolan Arenado vs. Alex Bregman

When it comes to third basemen, the debate between Nolan Arenado and Alex Bregman is a tough one. Welsh dissects their performances, skill sets, and surrounding lineups to help fantasy managers determine which player deserves the nod in their draft strategy.

These 99 player debates, curated by Chris Welsh, provide valuable insights and analysis for fantasy baseball managers preparing for the 2019 season. Whether it's comparing star players, identifying sleepers, evaluating risks, pinpointing breakout candidates, or determining the best players at each position, Welsh's expertise helps fantasy managers make educated decisions, giving them a competitive edge in their leagues. So as you gear up for your draft, make sure to delve into these debates to ensure a successful and enjoyable fantasy baseball season!

It's the 2019 edition of 99 Fantasy Baseball Player Debates. It's not a draft guide, but a draft tool. We've put together 99 draft scenarios of player vs. player match ups. In This League's Bogman and The Welsh make the case for each side!, but we've got to score this thing, right? Each debate is judged by three industry experts, such as Paul Sporer, Eno Sarris, Steve Gardner and many many more, in a boxing style format. From a knockout to a close 10-9 decision, these debates can go any direction.

We also took five debates from our 2018 book to review. How did it turn out? and what debate from this years book, mirrors a match up from last years book. Lastly, you'll find Bogman and The Welsh's top 300 ranks for standard 5x5.

It's a fun and unique read, that is unlike any other fantasy baseball book. Even the layout. Each page has a boxing promotional poster feel. Beware, as the book reads a bit different than most. Zoom in and read all the great information. Enjoy a new way to tackle your drafts!
