The “straight man” from Best In Show has written the funniest, most honest and revealing book about Hollywood in decades...

For more than four decades, Jim Piddock has navigated the turbulent waters of Broadway and Hollywood as an actor and a writer. In this highly entertaining and witty account of his journey from a small village in England to the heady heights of the Hollywood Hills, he pulls back the curtain—with remarkable honesty and humour—to reveal what really goes on behind the scenes in the entertainment industry.

But underneath this lighthearted, irreverent romp through the world of show business—and Jim's involvement with Crystal Palace Football Club in his spare time—lie some deeper reflections and the incisive s on what the real meaning of family is, how to make destiny-defining choices, and the importance of living life to the fullest.

All of the author's proceeds from the book will be donated to BAFTA's Access for All program in the US, the Palace for Life Foundation in the UK, and a charity to aid Ukrainian refugees.
