Imagine the enchantment of invoking the fierce grace of Kali through the rhythmic verses:

```
Infinite is her might,
Kali, radiant in black,
Dark as the starry night,
Ego she shall attack.
Transforming our darkest fright,
She bestows courage to fight.
```

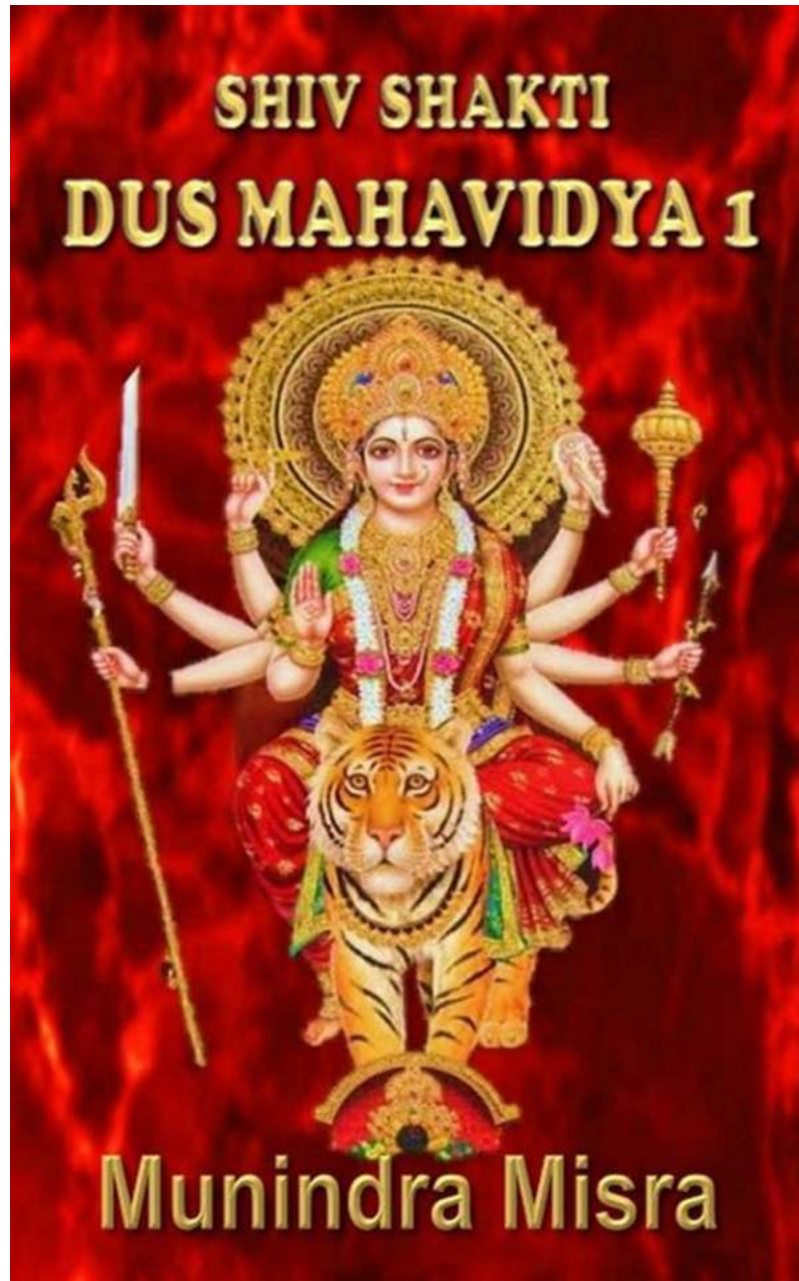

Or perhaps, you would like to embrace the divine harmony of Tripura Sundari through the lyrical lines:

```
Tripura Sundari, embodiment of bliss,
Radiating beauty and never amiss,
Her loving gaze, a gentle caress,
In her presence, all agony we dismiss.
Grant us grace and eternal peace,
From suffering, forever release.
```

These poetic renditions not only bring us closer to the energy of the Mahavidyas but also make their teachings accessible to a wider audience. By merging mythology, spirituality, and literary beauty, we create a celestial bridge that unites the human soul with the cosmic divinity.
