Entering Yoni Space requires us to embrace our vulnerability and surrender to the flow of life. It is about letting go of control and allowing ourselves to be guided by our intuition and inner wisdom. This can be a daunting and transformative journey, but the rewards are immeasurable.

One way to enter Yoni Space is through meditation and breathwork. By finding a quiet place, closing our eyes, and focusing on our breath, we can create a sacred space within ourselves. This allows us to connect with our innermost desires, fears, and emotions. It is a powerful practice that can bring about deep healing and self-empowerment.

Another method to enter Yoni Space is through dance and movement. By allowing our bodies to express themselves freely, we can tap into the energy that resides within us. Dance is a beautiful way to connect with our sensual side and embrace our femininity. It can be an exhilarating and liberating experience that takes us to new heights of self-discovery.

Journaling is also a powerful tool for entering Yoni Space. By putting our thoughts and emotions onto paper, we can gain clarity and insight into our inner world. It is an opportunity to explore our desires, fears, and dreams in a safe and non-judgmental space. Journaling can help us uncover hidden beliefs and patterns that may be holding us back from fully embracing our true selves.

Entering Yoni Space is not just about exploring our individual selves, but also about connecting with the divine energy that surrounds us. It is about recognizing that we are part of a larger whole and that our journey is interconnected with the universe. This understanding brings a sense of oneness and deepens our spiritual connection.

"Everything that comes into the plane of the work has already gone through the materialization of idea and identity and inner revelatory space. The plane, the paper, the boards with the smeared pastel are never trying to make a picture of
