

Explore the Breathtaking Charleston Architecture and Interiors with Susan Sully

When it comes to iconic architecture, few places in the United States can rival Charleston, South Carolina. Rich in history and charm, Charleston is a haven for lovers of both traditional and modern design. Behind the beauty of this vibrant city lies the extraordinary work of Susan Sully, an esteemed designer and author who has dedicated her career to preserving and celebrating the unique architectural heritage of Charleston.

A Lifetime of Passion for Architecture

Susan Sully's fascination with architecture began at a young age. Growing up in South Carolina, she was mesmerized by the historic buildings that dotted the landscape of Charleston. Captivated by their grandeur and timelessness, Susan developed a deep appreciation for the intricate details, craftsmanship, and the stories they held.

After studying art history and architecture at the University of Virginia, Susan embarked on a journey to unearth the secrets behind Charleston's architectural marvels. She spent countless hours researching, documenting, and interviewing the finest architects, designers, and craftsmen in the city, absorbing their knowledge and wisdom.
