This true story of a courageous family that goes to amazing lengths to find cutting edge medical answers is a page-turner. You will find yourself laughing out loud and weeping silently as the Jensen family searches desperately to find answers to help their son, Jesse.

Jesse is a lively, loving little five-year-old boy when the Jensens, his “forever family,” adopt him. Abandoned and frightened, he settles into his new home and begins to blossom. His older brother and sister adore him as do friends at church and in the neighborhood. The first few years with Jesse overflow with love and laughter as he melds into their family seamlessly. The whole family bonds over Flaming Hot Cheetos and generous helpings of hot sauce, celebrating life with their trademark Jensen quirky sense of humor and deep faith.

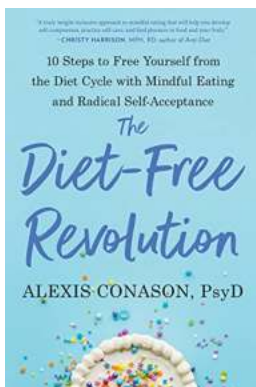

But, three years later he is tragically diagnosed with a heart breaking condition.

Share in this roller coaster ride as you experience their frustration, as school and neighborhood gatherings with Jesse, are no longer an option; their helplessness, as one determined doctor after another struggles unsuccessfully to find an answer to keep Jesse's body from excruciating pain; and their despair as numerous medications cause only horrible side effects.

To reduce stress, the Jensen's move to Missoula, Montana when Jesse is 13 and within a few months, Jesse's angry outburst due to a severe medication reaction while in a doctor's office, leads to a call to local police. Nancy's life-long aversion to parades comes to fruition, as they drive to the hospital in a slow procession, tucked in between two police car escorts with sirens and lights blazing.

"We're a parade. I'm in a parade. We're the main attraction and everyone is staring at us. My worst nightmare has come true. We are the only float in today's parade and I don't have any candy to throw."

Resurrected Mind is sure to inspire you, causing you to laugh and cry while you share in this modern day miracle that unfolds at the world renown Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minnesota.
