Exploring Parallel Universes

Imagine a world in which every choice you make leads to different consequences and outcomes. Parallel universes are a fascinating concept that suggests that for every decision we make, an alternate reality branches off, creating a new version of ourselves. The selected writings in this anthology will take you on a mind-bending journey through these parallel universes, where you will encounter alternate versions of yourself and witness the profound implications of the smallest choices.

The Multiverse: A Tapestry of Realities

While parallel universes focus on individual choices, the concept of the multiverse broadens the scope to encompass an entire tapestry of interconnected realities. Just as there are countless threads woven across a grand tapestry, the multiverse houses an infinite number of parallel worlds, each with its own unique set of circumstances and possibilities. In this anthology, you will discover an array of thought-provoking stories that demonstrate the diverse nature of the multiverse and the endless adventures it holds.

For more than two decades, the artist Renée Green has created an impressive body of work in which language is an essential element. Green is also a prolific writer and a major voice in the international art world. Other Planes of There gathers for the first time a substantial collection of the work she wrote between 1981 and 2010. The selected essays initially appeared in publications in different countries and languages, making their availability in this volume a boon to those wanting to follow Green's artistic and intellectual trajectory.

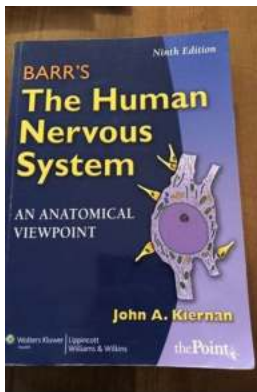

Charting this cosmopolitan artist's thinking through the decades, Other Planes of There brings essays, film scripts, reviews, and polemics together with reflections on Green's own artistic practice and seminal artworks. It immerses the reader in three decades of contemporary art showcasing the art and thought, the incisive critiques and prescient observations of one of our foremost artists and intellectuals. Sound, cinema, literature, time-based media, and the relationship between art forms and other forms of knowledge are just a few of the matters that Green takes up and thinks through. Sixty-four pages of color plates were selected by the artist for this lavishly illustrated volume.
