Revised, updated, and expanded this fourth edition of the formerly titled Guide to State Legislative Lobbying now has 11 process flow charts, numerous best-practices checklists, and 100 additional pages of advice, facts, insights, and techniques from lobbyists across the USA. Manual 3 in the Insiders Talk six-volume series, this book remains the hands-on, how-to, best-practices primer for developing personal lobbying skills and for planning and implementing an effective state legislative lobbying campaign. The 15-video series, The Campaign Method for More Effective State Government Affairs, expands upon and trains advocates on how to apply this manual.

Winning with Lobbyists, Readers Edition (Manual 4, paperback, 224 pages, 13 chapters, general readers) and the Professional Edition (Manual 5, hardcover, 488 pages, 21 chapters, practitioners) go much deeper into practices and techniques used by effective lobbyists and their employers.

Legislatures enact about ten percent of the body of law affecting regulated interests. Executive branch agencies promulgate the other ninety percent. Manual 6 Guide to Executive Branch Agency Rulemaking coaches advocates to successfully navigate the agency rulemaking process to keep what they got from the legislature or to get more.
