As of last year (2019) according to the Associated Press:

Spain has become the biggest entry point for unauthorized migration to Europe.

A particular entry point hotspot for sex trafficking is the Andalusia region of southern Spain where a vast majority of foreign national women and underage minors have been brought to work as sex slaves in the many roadside brothels dotting the agricultural landscape of Almería and Cádiz provinces. 90% of Spain's sex industry is comprised of largely undocumented refugees flooding into the country, controlled by the nation's criminal gang network.

Wherever the state has lost the trust of its citizens due to out of control corruption and incompetence, in the wake of the vacuum, organized crime has been allowed to thrive and flourish. Essentially the state has been co-opted by oligarchic crime bosses. With Spain's breakdown of institutional functions (along with virtually the entire world of over 200 nation states), be they a constitutional parliamentary monarchy as in Madrid or constitutional republic as in America, governance at the transnational (i.e., the UN, see Chapter 11; EU), national or local level across the board has become so infested with rampant, runaway corruption, graft, bribery and blackmail, organized crime and the Deep State have melded into one irreparably corrosive criminal mafia state that has only spread globally. This tragic yet all too accurate description of the state of the world today explains why illegal trafficking of drugs, arms, children, humans, their harvested organs/adrenochrome and trillions in laundered dirty money each year has reached such an unprecedented, off the charts scale today.

Stakes in this war between good and evil have never been higher and the forces of evil know they can only win with the complicit ignorance reinforced by mass media brainwash blinding the dumbed down masses, which is why this war's battleground is being fought over control of your mind. If good is to prevail, the informational flow of truth becomes imperative. As the expression goes, often misattributed to George Orwell – “in a time of universal deceit, telling the truth is a revolutionary, [and daresay criminal] act.” Using oppressive censorship for total control over information and truth, and the 2010 Rockefeller Foundation Coronavirus pandemic playbook, today's globalized scheme is to rush through untested mandated vaccination worldwide, targeting the human genome and chromosome 8 in particular, designed to diabolically alter human DNA, lower intelligence and our immune system, and eliminate our God given capacity for empathy and compassion, which has been proven to be genetically linked.

There are more human slaves being trafficked on earth now than any prior time in human history. According to the 2000 UN Convention: [Human trafficking] is an act involving deception, a transfer to another country or place and exploitation that infringes on a person's liberty.

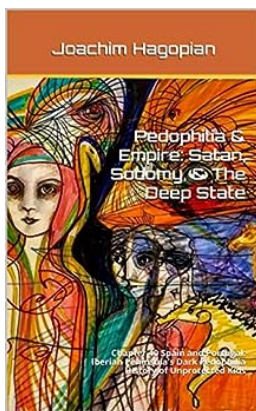

Whereas drugs and guns are typically sold and turned over for resale once or twice, in contrast during the course of one single 24-hour day, children/human sex slaves are typically sold many times over, forced to service 5 to 45 buyers per day, making sex trafficking the fastest growing, if not most lucrative and profitable organized crime industry on the planet, reaping an estimated $99 billion annually with 96% of the victims women and girls.
