One of the key aspects of Carol's approach is the emphasis on self-expression. Rather than teaching rigid rules and techniques, she encourages her students to let their imagination roam free. Through experimentation and exploration, students are able to find their own artistic voice and develop a unique style.

Unlocking Your Potential

One of the reasons why Carol's teaching method is so effective is her ability to create a supportive and nurturing environment. She understands that many individuals have insecurities and self-doubt when it comes to their artistic abilities. With a warm and encouraging approach, she helps students overcome these obstacles and build confidence in their skills.

Carol also believes in the importance of collaboration and community. In her classes, students have the opportunity to connect and learn from each other. This sense of camaraderie fosters a supportive atmosphere where everyone feels comfortable sharing their artwork and receiving constructive feedback.

Another unique aspect of Creative Solutions Art is the incorporation of mindfulness techniques. Carol believes that art can be a form of therapy that helps individuals relax and find inner peace. By incorporating mindfulness exercises into her classes, she encourages students to fully immerse themselves in the creative process and let go of any external pressures or distractions.

Creating Lasting Impressions

Whether you're looking to explore your artistic side as a hobby or aspire to become a professional artist, Creative Solutions Art can help you achieve your goals. Many of Carol's students have gone on to exhibit their work in galleries and participate in art competitions, thanks to the guidance and support they received during their time at her studio.

Not only does Carol offer classes and workshops, but she also provides one-on-one coaching for individuals who prefer a more personalized approach. This tailored guidance allows students to focus on their specific needs and receive individualized feedback to help them grow as artists.

Furthermore, Creative Solutions Art hosts regular exhibitions and showcases to celebrate the work of its students. This provides the opportunity for artists to gain exposure and recognition within the art community, amplifying their artistic journey.

I put together this book of projects, the processes and techniques, as well as the life lessons learnt on this beautiful, sometimes frustrating journey. Living in the country of Tanzania, on the island of Zanzibar is akin to living in an art studio. There is so much inspiration, color, texture and harmony in nature and the people. The Creative Solutions project that I created was a humming, living art workshop happening every day. The following pages are filled with images of the art that came out of my love for the project and the place that was my home for over 18 years. It was based on principles which I still hold in my heart.
