Programme Schedule

The Os Tos Mhong Youth Radio Phone-In Programme will be broadcast every Wednesday from 4 pm to 6 pm. Each episode will focus on a specific theme, ensuring a diverse range of topics to cater to the varied interests and concerns of our young audience.

How Does It Work?

The show will be hosted by experienced radio personalities who are well-versed in engaging discussions. Young individuals can participate by calling our dedicated phone line, sharing their thoughts, asking questions, or simply joining in the conversation. We encourage everyone to embrace different perspectives and engage in respectful dialogue.

Key Features of the Programme

- Inclusivity: We welcome all young individuals, regardless of background or affiliation, to contribute to the discussions and be part of this community-building initiative.
- Diverse Topics: We will tackle a wide array of subjects, such as mental health, education, career development, relationships, social issues, and more, to ensure we cover the concerns and interests of our diverse audience.

- Guest Experts: We will invite specialists and experts to provide insightful perspectives and guidance on specific topics. Their expertise will further enrich the conversations and offer valuable advice to our listeners.
- Interactive Q&A: Throughout the show, we will dedicate segments for interactive Q&A sessions, allowing callers to ask questions directly to the hosts or the invited experts.

The Power of Your Voice

The Os Tos Mhong Youth Radio Phone-In Programme is more than just a radio show. It aims to empower young individuals, giving them a platform to be heard, fostering a sense of belonging, and inspiring positive change within the community. Your voice matters, and we believe that together, we can create a vibrant and inclusive society for all.
