Christopher Penczak, an expert in witchcraft and occultism, will guide you on a deep exploration of the Morrighan's myths, symbols, and rituals. Through lectures, interactive exercises, and guided meditations, he will help you unlock the mysteries and hidden wisdom of this fascinating goddess.

Journey Into the Celtic Otherworld

As you begin your journey at the Feast of the Morrighan workshop, you will enter the Celtic Otherworld – a realm where time and space are fluid, and the barriers between the physical and spiritual worlds become thin. You will be guided by Christopher Penczak as you delve into the mythic landscapes and encounter the beings from Celtic folklore.

Through immersive experiences and ceremonies, you will gain a deeper understanding of the Morrighan's realms and her connection to nature, ancestors, and the divine. You will learn how to tap into her power and harness it for personal growth, healing, and spiritual transformation.

Unveil the Magick and Wisdom of the Morrighan

During the Feast of the Morrighan workshop, Christopher Penczak will unveil the magickal practices associated with this ancient goddess. You will learn how to create sacred rituals, invoke her presence, and work with her energy. Through practical exercises, you will explore divination, spellcraft, and astral journeying, unlocking the secrets of the Morrighan's power.

The workshop will also delve into the symbolic meanings of the Morrighan's tools, such as the cauldron, the sword, and the raven. You will discover how to incorporate these symbols into your own spiritual practice, enhancing your connection to the divine feminine and deepening your magical abilities.

Celebrate the Feast of the Morrighan

With the guidance of Christopher Penczak, you will have the opportunity to participate in a traditional Feast of the Morrighan ceremony. This sacred ritual allows you to honor the goddess and connect with her on a profound level. Through music, dance, and offerings, you will experience the transformative power of celebrating the Morrighan's presence.

“...the Morrighan will indeed teach you. She will dare you, inspire you, provoke you, test you, make you see your power, and compel you use it to be all you can be. The Morrighan is a Goddess to inspire you to great achievements. She requires you to banish weakness, which means you must face your fears and leave comfort behind. She won't fight your battles: She'll show you how to fight them yourself. This is why she stays in the shadows. It is you that she is pushing into the limelight, you that she wants to be seen. She wants to you to be glorious.”

— from the Foreword by Kerr Cuhulain

In this devotional work, author Christopher Penczak delves deeply into the lore of the Morrighan, the “Phantom Queen,” creating a grimoire that is part historical research, part poetic inspiration, and part personal experience, creating “...a feast for her devotees, something to nourish us in the development of our relationship with her.” A fantastic resource for anyone working with the dark goddesses of the Celtic tradition or seeking to do so!
