Within this publication, you will find 31 flavours to savour. Some are poems, some are insights and others are life lessons. Following my own journey, I've come to understand things from a very broad view. My goal is to convey those views in a way that's both eye-opening and digestible. This is why an art piece has been included with each story, to help convey the message. It's my recommendation that a fair amount of time be spent on each and every flavour, before moving on to the next. To read each one, along with the artwork associated, figuring out for yourself, exactly what it means for you. You may come to find out after reading it the first time, that you want to read it again. And when you do, you may discover brand new meanings, as your personal vibration has increased, along with your depth of perception. Enjoy!
