The Warrior Lovers have spoken. In response to communications with Warrior Lovers around the world, author Leilani Anastasia takes a new and improved approach to addressing two of the subjects that Warrior Lovers suffer from most - isolation and rejection.

The author explores two of the most complex feelings that spouses and partners of Combat PTSD victims suffer from and explains the reasons behind those feelings. From codependency to low self esteem, this book addresses where these feelings arise from and how to battle the negativity associated with them.
