What is Year In Yurt?

Year In Yurt is a unique concept that combines the tranquility of nature and the simplicity of a nomadic lifestyle. It offers individuals a chance to live in a traditional Mongolian yurt, also known as a ger, for an entire year.

A Unique Experience

Living in a yurt provides a truly immersive experience. Made from natural materials including wood and felt, these portable dwellings offer a tangible connection to the environment. The circular design of the yurt promotes a sense of harmony with your surroundings, fostering a deep sense of peace and relaxation.

Connect with Nature

Year In Yurt allows you to disconnect from the chaos of the modern world and embrace the simplicity of nature. Imagine waking up to the sounds of chirping birds and the gentle rustle of leaves. Witness breathtaking sunrises and sunsets, and fall asleep under a canopy of twinkling stars. In a yurt, nature becomes an integral part of your everyday life.

Escape the City Hustle

If you crave an escape from the concrete jungle, Year In Yurt is the perfect solution. Bid farewell to the honking horns and embrace the serene natural surroundings. Engage in outdoor activities such as hiking, fishing, and stargazing. Reconnect with yourself and discover renewed clarity of mind in the tranquil wilderness.

Experience Cultural Richness

The Year In Yurt program also offers an opportunity to learn about the rich Mongolian culture. From traditional games and music to mouth-watering delicacies, you'll be immersed in a world of age-old traditions. Engage with local communities and gain valuable insights into their way of life.

A Sustainable Lifestyle

Living in a yurt promotes environmental consciousness. With minimal ecological footprint, these dwellings are an eco-friendly alternative to conventional houses. Experience the satisfaction of sustainable living through composting toilets, rainwater harvesting, and renewable energy sources.

Simplicity and Self-Reflection

The stripped-down lifestyle in a yurt encourages self-reflection and an appreciation for the simple things in life. Without the distractions of material possessions or technology, you'll have the space and time to reevaluate your priorities and discover what truly matters to you.

Year In Yurt provides a life-changing opportunity to escape the hustle and bustle and immerse yourself in nature and culture. It offers a unique perspective on sustainable living and encourages personal growth through self-reflection. So why not embark on this extraordinary adventure and discover the beauty of a year in a yurt?

Many people have asked why we did this. Why would my husband and I sell our home, car, ATV, snowmobile, furniture, why donate over 90% of our belongings and move into a yurt, in Maine no less? You might be surprised, because the reasons were really not all that unique: debt, unhappiness, and lack of fulfillment with where we found ourselves in life. What was unique was our solution.

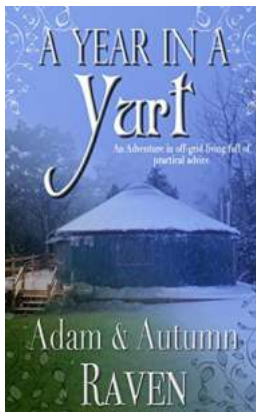

Join us as we strive to achieve our dream of becoming debt free by drastically altering our lifestyle and building a low cost, DIY yurt. A Year in a Yurt follows us as beginners while we tackle our first year from construction through a snowy Maine winter in our tiny house while we battle insects, heat, cold, and occasionally each other in a search for freedom through living in an alternative, solar home. Learn from our decisions made to solve a multitude of problems from solar installation, types of toilets, what to cook on, how to plumb an indoor shower, and more as we strive not just to survive but to be prosperous and self sufficient in our new homesteading lives.

This book is full of photos with more available on line to better illustrate what life is like in less than 500 square feet of space and living in a cloth sided yurt!
