Setting Sail

The duo set off to explore various avenues, not simply as individuals, but as a team driven by shared goals. Their journey began with a road trip across the country, immersing themselves in new cultures, landscapes, and experiences. This exposure to the unknown served as a catalyst, fueling their ambition to carve out their own unique path in life.

Discovering Passions

Sarah and Emily embarked on a multitude of activities and hobbies, from photography to hiking, painting to culinary arts. With each new pursuit, they discovered hidden passions and talents they never knew existed. The mother-daughter bond enhanced their exploration, as they supported and encouraged one another every step of the way.

Sarah found solace in capturing the beauty of nature through her lens, while Emily channeled her creativity into vibrant paintings that stirred emotions within. They dedicated time to honing their skills, attending workshops and classes, and learning from seasoned individuals in their respective fields.

Achieving Balance

Throughout their journey, Sarah and Emily realized the importance of achieving a harmonious balance between their newfound passions and the practicalities of life. They learned to integrate their creative pursuits into their daily routines instead of compartmentalizing them. This integration brought about a sense of fulfillment and purpose that permeated every aspect of their existence.

Sharing Their Learnings

As their journey progressed, Sarah and Emily started documenting their experiences through a blog. They shared the lessons they learned, the challenges they faced, and the triumphs they achieved. Their stories resonated with others, inspiring people from all walks of life to pursue their passions and live purposefully.

The blog soon gained a significant following, and they received countless messages from individuals who found a renewed sense of purpose in their own lives through Sarah and Emily's words. This outpouring of support fueled their ongoing commitment to their journey and its impact on others.

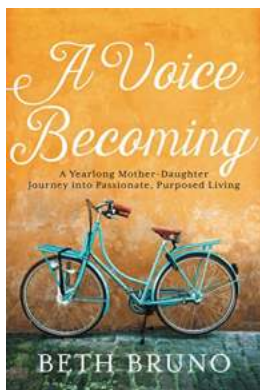

An Unforeseen Transformation

Little did Sarah and Emily know that their yearlong journey would lead them down an unexpected path. They were approached by a publishing house interested in turning their experiences into a book. Overwhelmed and excited, they accepted the opportunity, realizing that their story could inspire even more people on a larger scale.

A Legacy of Passion and Purpose

Today, Sarah and Emily continue to inspire others through their book, speaking engagements, and workshops. Their yearlong journey became the spark that ignited a revolution in countless lives. Their story teaches us that taking the time to explore our passions, live purposefully, and nurture the important relationships in our lives can lead to a deeply fulfilling and impactful existence.

In a world consumed by routine and mundane obligations, the yearlong mother-daughter journey into passionate purposed living serves as a reminder that our lives are meant to be vibrant, purpose-driven, and full of joy. In A Voice Becoming, Beth Bruno helps mothers cast a Godly vision for their daughters and chart a course that will prepare their daughters for womanhood.

What if you as a mother concentrated on your daughter for one year? Who might she become? A Voice Becoming is for moms who want to usher their daughters into womanhood but know they need more than tips, techniques, and programs. This is for moms who desire to chart a course for their daughters that helps them know the story of God they are entering and the global sisterhood of women they are joining.

A Voice Becoming is written by a fellow sojourner, still in the middle of the journey, processing her own story as she casts a vision for her daughter to discover hers. Sometimes road maps are too restrictive and a friend is needed who has made the journey already. Beth Bruno seeks to activate moms by infusing them with hope and vision. Readers will join Beth in a yearlong journey of teaching their daughters that women lead, women love, women fight, women sacrifice, and women create. Moms learn how to use film and books, tangible experiences, volunteering, interviewing other women, traveling, and more in a creative and life-altering way to help solidify these important concepts in the mind and life of their young teen.
